

Programme

9 – 9:45	Coffee & Registration
9:45	Welcome – Deputy Dean	Dr Carol Marley, Deputy Dean, School of Languages and Soci
10:00	Five years of CFL - on productive collaboration.	Prof Malcolm Coulthard
10:40	Police Interviews with Significant Witnesses in Cases of Rape: Some Insights from Discourse Analysis	Dr Nicci MacLeod
11:00	Coffee
11:20	Police suspect interviews: putting linguistic theory into practice.	Dr Kate Haworth
11:55	Linguistic and other contributions to improving police interviews.	Det Supt Andy Griffiths
12:45 pm	Lunch
1:25	From duppifying yoots to sexual slang – determining meanings as evidence.	Dr Tim Grant
1:45	Communication needs of Litigants in Person.	Dr Tatiana Tkačuková
2:10	Interpreting in the courtroom through Prison Video Link: factors affecting communication between court actors.	Dr Yvonne Fowler
2:35	Coffee
2:55	Forensic Language	Lord Justice John Goldring
3:25	Comparative authorship analysis in the Starbucks case.	Dr Jack Grieve
3:50	Forensic linguist – a job description	Dr Krzysztof Kredens
4:15	The future for Forensic Linguistics and CFL.	Dr Tim Grant
4:35	Close	